Mykola Portenko

Institute of Mathematics, NAS of Ukraine

Several comments to the behavior of Brownian motion in a Euclidean space with a membrane located on a given hyperplane

Abstract

My talk will concern the limit theorem for the number of crossings through the membrane by a discrete approximations of the process indicated in the title. I am going to discuss various ways for characterizing the limit distribution in that theorem.