

Vadym Radchenko

Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv

Equations with a symmetric integral with respect to stochastic measures

Abstract

The stochastic measures (SMs) are σ -additive in probability random set functions defined on a σ -algebra. Many important classes of processes generate a SM. In the talk, we give a definition of the Stratonovich-type integral with respect to SM and study some equations with this integral. The averaging principle for these equations will be considered.