

Random links and random walks on finite groups

Heorhii Zhylynskyi¹

In this presentation, we explore properties of random walks of finite groups and later use them to obtain the limiting braid length expectation and component number of braid closure in a model of random braids, which is constructed by lifting elements of random walk on a Coxeter group to a braid group.

¹Ukrainian Physics and Mathematics Lyceum, Kyiv, Ukraine. Email: georgyzhilinsky235@gmail.com